

Our admissions team accepts deposit extension requests for BECAL applicants who provide evidence of their application via the UCL application portal, Portico.

Candidates can request the deposit extension/waiver directly via the portal as per below guidance (as this may not be obvious on the system). I can also reassure candidates who get in touch with me about this directly:

1. Go to the 'Post-offer information' tab

Programme Home Page   Referees   Upload Documents   Offer   Funding   Post-offer information   Communications   Ask a Question

Holding an Offer

Your Offer page contains information specific to your offer. The following comprises general information for offer holders. Please make sure that you read the

Congratulations!

Congratulations on receiving an offer to study! We look forward to welcoming you to UCL!

To help you through the next steps of the Admissions process we have set up a Graduate Offer Holder website which provides you with important information about UCL studies. You may also find our Offer Holder FAQs helpful if you have any questions about what you need to do next.

2. Scroll down to the 'Financial Deposits Page' (it is hyperlinked on the page).
3. Click on PAY YOUR DEPOSIT and follow the steps.

Here, candidates should be able to upload their BECAL application and request the deadline extension.

Cualquier pregunta adicional que tengan, no duden en contactarme.

Thanks again for all your help and collaboration. Saludos cordiales,
